

Emily F. Rine
Department of Applied Linguistics
Penn State University
Sparks 305 Building
State College, PA 16802
efr108@psu.edu

Education:

Ph.D. Applied Linguistics, Penn State University, 2009
Advisor: Dr. Joan Kelly Hall
M.A. Applied Linguistics, Teachers College, Columbia University, 2004
Advisor: Dr. Leslie Beebe
B.A. Linguistics and German Studies, Boston College, 2001
Advisor: Dr. Rachel Freudenburg
n.d. German as a Foreign Language, Universität Heidelberg, Germany, 1999

Dissertation:

“Development in Dialogic Teaching Skills: A Micro-Analytic Case Study of a Pre-Service ITA”.
Committee: Joan Kelly Hall (chair), Steve Thorne, Meredith Doran, Paula Golombek, Johannes Wagner.

Publications:

Rine, E.F., and Hall, J.K. (in preparation). Changing participant frameworks in International Teaching Assistant (ITA) discourse.
Rine, E.F., Steinbach-Kohler, F., and Hall, J.K. (in preparation). The consequentiality of text in talk.

Research Experience:

2007-2008 Research Assistant
Penn State University- Center for Language Acquisition

- Assisted in the design & development of ITAcorp, an electronic learner corpus of International Teaching Assistant English

2006-2007 Primary Investigator
Multimedia German Reading Comprehension Project

- Project investigating how learners use multimedia glosses to help reading comprehension and vocabulary learning in a foreign language and how individual differences in working memory capacity impact learner behavior and outcomes.

- 2004-2005
2005-2006
- Research Assistant
Penn State University, Center for Language Acquisition
- Developed corpus-based pedagogical materials for advanced proficiency in German under the direction of Dr. Julie Belz.
 - Assisting with the development of Telekorp: The Telecollaborative Learner Corpus of English and German.
- 2004-2005
- Research Assistant
Penn State University, Center for Advanced Language Proficiency Education and Research (CALPER)
- Assisted with the development of the Foreign Language Computer-Mediated Activity Resource Library sponsored by the Center for Advanced Language Proficiency Education and Research (CALPER), which is comprised of pedagogically informed materials utilizing CMC tools (e.g. blogs, wikis, synchronous chat) for the specific purpose of fostering advanced language proficiency.

Teaching Experience:

- 2009-2010
- Lecturer in Applied Linguistics
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- 2009-2010
2008-2009
- Legal English/ESL tutor
Penn State Dickinson School of Law
- Fall 2007
- APLNG 586 - Analyzing Classroom Discourse
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
(co-taught with Dr. Joan Kelly Hall)
- Fall 2008
2007-2008
2006-2007
- ESL 118G - American Oral English for International TA's III
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- Taught advanced English and did teacher training for future ITAs
- Fall 2006
Spring 2006
Fall 2005
- ESL015 - ESL/Rhetoric & Composition
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- Taught undergraduate, freshman-level writing course
- Summer 2007
- ESL Teacher - Korean Teacher program
Penn State University, Intensive English Communication Program (IECP)
- Taught a capstone course for Korean middle & high school English teachers on “Pedagogical Applications in Teaching English as a Foreign Language” (in partnership with the Korean Ministry of Education)

- Spring 2007 APLNG 412- Teaching Second Language Writing
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- Guest lecturer on writing conferences
- Summer 2005 ESL Teacher
Penn State University, Intensive English Communication Program (IECP)
- Taught Level 3A, Speaking/Listening (High Intermediate)
 - Taught Level 3B, Grammar (High Intermediate)
- Additional Teaching Experience:*
- Fall 2003 ESL Teacher- Community English Program (CEP)
Teachers College, Columbia University
- AY 2001-2002 EFL Teaching Assistant
Staatliches Gymnasium Blankenhain, Germany (Fulbright Fellowship)
- Taught English and American Studies at a German high school as part of a Fulbright Fellowship.

Grants, Awards, & Fellowships:

- 2008 Doctoral Research Fellowship Application Incentive Award
- 2007-2008 College of Liberal Arts Graduate Student Dissertation Support Grant
- 2007 Penn State College of the Liberal Arts Humanities Initiative/Center for Language Acquisition/Gil Watz Dissertation Award
- 2006-2007 Center for Language Acquisition/Gil Watz Award for Outstanding Graduate Student in Applied Linguistics
- 2001-2002 J. William Fulbright Scholar (Germany)

Academic & Professional Service:

- Spring 2009 Assistant Coordinator, International Teaching Assistant Program
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- Supervise graduate instructors of ITA training courses
 - Coordinate all aspects of placement exams & post evaluation exams for ITA courses
- 2009-2010 Professional Development Committee
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- 2007-2008 Travel Committee
 2009-2010 Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- 2008 Mentor Teacher for APLNG 595 Internship
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics

- 2007 Graduate Student Representative to Faculty Meetings
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- Spring 2007 Acting Coordinator, ITA & ESL Programs
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- Supervised graduate instructors of ITA training courses
 - Coordinated all aspects of placement exams & post evaluations exams for ITA and ESL speaking courses
 - Acted as liaison between individual departments and ITA program
- 2006-2007 Curriculum Committee
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- 2006-2007 Social Committee
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- 2005 Manuscript reviewer
CALICO journal
AAUSC volume, "Issues in Language Program Education"
- 2004-2005 Language Acquisition Graduate Organization (LAGO), Secretary
Penn State University, Dept. of Applied Linguistics
- 2002-2004 TESOL/Applied Linguistics Roundtable, President
Teachers College, Columbia University

Selected Conference Presentations:

- Rine, E.F., and Hall, J.K. "Changing Participant Frameworks in International teaching Assistant (ITA) Discourse." American Association of Applied Linguistics (AAAL). Denver, CO, 2009.
- Rine, E.F. "A Microanalysis of Language Socialization & Development of Interactional Competence of ITAs." American Association of Applied Linguistics (AAAL). Washington, D.C., 2008.
- Rine, E.F. "The achievement of intersubjectivity: propositional and procedural distinctions." American Association of Applied Linguistics (AAAL). Costa Mesa, CA, 2007.
- Rine, E.F., Hundley, L. , Payne, J.S. and Chun, D. "What Makes Students Click (Again): Replicating Chun & Payne (2004)." CALICO. Honolulu, HI, 2006.
- Rine, E.F. "Methodological issues in impression formation research as shown through telecollaborative data." International Conference on Pragmatics and Language Learning. Bloomington, Indiana, 2005.

Professional Memberships:

American Association for Applied Linguistics (AAAL)
Computer-Assisted Language Instruction Consortium (CALICO)

Linguistic Society of America (LSA)
Modern Language Association (MLA)

Research Interests:

- conversation analytic approaches to language development
- intercultural pragmatics
- intersubjectivity as construct
- ITA pedagogy & discourse
- learner corpus analysis
- computer-mediated discourse analysis

Languages:

German – advanced speaking and reading skills; intermediate writing skills
French – intermediate reading skills; basic speaking and writing skills

References:

Dr. Joan Kelly Hall

Professor of Applied Linguistics/Chair, Dept. of Applied Linguistics/Dissertation Chair
Penn State University
Department of Applied Linguistics
305 Sparks Building
University Park, PA 16802
814-865-4982
jkh11@psu.edu

Dr. Steven L. Thorne

Assistant Professor of Applied Linguistics/Associate Director, Center for Language Acquisition/Committee Member
Penn State University
Department of Applied Linguistics
305 Sparks Building
University Park, PA 16802
814-863-7036
sthorne@psu.edu

Dr. Paula Golombek

Clinical Associate Professor of Linguistics/Committee Member
University of Florida
Department of Linguistics
PO Box 115454
Gainesville, FL 32611-5454
352-392-0639 Ext. 241
pgolombek@ufl.edu